Autumn Luncheon

12:15 for 12:45, Tuesday 19th November 2019

The Crypt, Guildhall 71 Basinghall Street London EC2V 5DH

Our Chairman, Michael Khan, Esquire, invites you and your guests to join him and his principal guest Alderman William Russell, the Lord Mayor elect, and his civic party for our annual Autumn Luncheon in the Crypt at Guildhall.

The Guildhall has been the centre of civic government in the City of London for over 800 years and continues to be the seat of government of the City of London to this day. First built between 1411 and 1440 it has undergone many changes, surviving both the Great Fire and the Blitz. The Crypt is the oldest surviving part of Guildhall and has a wonderful medieval feel.

The Autumn Luncheon is one of the first Ward Club engagements undertaken by the Lord Mayor during his year and accordingly it sets the tone for his period in office. It is a great privilege to host the Lord Mayor at this early stage in his mayoralty and accordingly this event is usually heavily subscribed.

Cost: £90 per person - we have been able to hold the cost down this year with a view to maximising the opportunity for the members to attend and I urge you to book as soon as possible to take advantage.

Members are encouraged to pay by electronic bank transfer, but if you pay by cheque it should be made payable to Coleman Street Ward Club and should reach me by 5th November.

Dress:

Committee members and principal guests: morning suits with badges

Others: business suits or equivalent; ladies may wear hats if they wish.
