Private Tour of Keats House, 10 Keats Grove, Hampstead, London NW3 2RR with a sparkling wine reception and a sandwich buffet supper
5.50PM for 6.00PM, Wednesday, 10 September 2014

Our Chairman, Nigel James, Esquire, invites members and their guests to join him on a Private Tour of Keats House. This grade 1 listed building is open to the public as a museum and literary centre, where Keats's memory lives on through events, creative activities and special displays. Visitors can explore Keats's study, the bedroom where his consumption was first diagnosed, and the garden which he shared with the love of his life, Fanny Brawne, and in which he composed his famous 'Ode to a Nightingale'.

We will be given a guided tour with a sparkling wine reception and a sandwich buffet supper.

The evening will conclude at 8.00PM

Dress: Jacket and tie

Cost: £25 per head

We are limited to 30 attendees for this visit. You are advised to book early if you wish to secure a place. Places will be allocated strictly in order of receipt of remittance.

Closing date for applications: 3 September 2014
