Summer Luncheon

12.15 for 12.45, Wednesday, 11 July 2012
Armourers' Hall, 81 Coleman Street, London EC2R 5BJ

Our Chairman, David Henderson-Begg, Esquire, invites members to join him and our principal guest of honour, Sheriff-elect Nigel Pullman JP, at our Summer Luncheon. In the year in which we celebrate the sesquicentennial anniversary of the founding of our Ward Club it is fitting that the Summer Luncheon will be held at Armourers' Hall, the one Livery Hall situated in Coleman Street Ward. The Worshipful Company of Armourers and Brasiers has occupied this site since 1346. The Hall survived the Great Fire of London and again survived the blitz in 1940, saved by the prompt action of an unknown Fireman, who, on seeing the curtains ablaze in the Court Room, broke into the Hall and extinguished the flames. We have the privilege of taking lunch in this wonderful Hall amidst a dazzling display of Arms and Armour.

The food and wines will be provided by Mark Grove of The Cook & The Butler. Mark and his team have always given immense satisfaction in the past. This will be a very special occasion, providing you and your guests with the opportunity to enjoy the best of civic hospitality. However, space within this historic Hall is limited, so please reply promptly with your remittance to be sure of securing your place at what will be a most memorable event. Places will be allocated in strict order of receipt of remittance.

Cost of the luncheon: £75 per person.
